Jeff Klemp made a motion to approve the financial report. Dennis Rhead seconded the motion. Motion carried.

Public Comment: Romaine Bergh attended the meeting and asked for a building permit to build storage sheds on a commercial parcel that he owns. The board advised him to get the plans together and then apply for the permit.

OLD BUSINESS:

Road Work/Equipment: Nothing to report. Justin Gabriel is working on the truck. The meeting with Cedar Corp has taken place concerning 620th Ave.

Solid Waste: Nothing to report

Cemetery: A mowing person needs to be hired for the cemetery. This will be added to the March agenda.

Fire Dept: Collection of Fire bills was discussed.

The clerk will add a storage unit ordinance to the next board meeting agenda.

NEW BUSINESS:

Solar Ordinance Information: A solar ordinance was discussed. The town will need a remediation ordinance to restore the property to the way it was when it was installed. This will need to be readdressed with the bound amount every five years. The surface and ground water needs to be protected if there were some type of natural disaster.

Other Concerns: Colfax Ambulance per capita is 27 dollars. Neighboring communities are paying 24 dollars per capita. The Dunn County News will continue to be the TEM Legal notice paper.

Jeff Klemp made a motion to adjourn the meeting. Dennis Rhead seconded the motion. Motion carried. The meeting adjourned at 9 p.m. The next monthly board meeting will be at 6 pm on Thursday, March 9, 2023.

Respectfully Submitted,

Carolyn Loechler, Clerk
